The schedule will state the times within which articles will be required to be delivered; and where the printed schedule is not used the periods stated in it for deliveries must be copied in the bids. All ithe articles which may be contracted for must be delivered at such place or places, including drayage and cartage to the place where used within the navy yards, respectively, for which the offer is made, as may be directed by the commanding offerer thereof; and, all other things being equal, preference will be given to American manufacture. No article will be received after the expiration of the period specified in the schedules for the completion of deliveries, unless specially authorized by the department.

It is to be provided in the completion of deliveries, unless specially authorized by the department.

It is to be provided in the contract, and to be distinctly understood by the bidders, that the amount and number of articles enumerated in clauses headed "mixellaneous" are specified as the probable quantity which may be required, as well as to fix data for determining the lowest bid; but the contractor is to furnish more or less of the said canuscrated articles, and is such quantities, and of such times, as the bureau or commandate my require; such increase, however, not to exceed one-dired of the quantities stated, (and requisitions sent through the post office shall be deemed sufficient notice,) during the fiscal part rading 30th June, 1808; and whether the quantities required be more or less than those specified in price shall romain the same.

All the articles under the contract must be of the best quality, delivered in good order, free of all and every charge or expense to the government, and subject to be inspection, count, weight, or measurement of the said may, yard, and be in all respects satisfactory to the commandant thereof. Bidders are referred to the yard for plans, specifications, or samples, and any further description of the arti swithin thirty days after the presentation of bills, in tripicace, any vouched and approved.

No part of the per centum reserved is to be paid until all the rejected articles offered under the contract shall have been removed from the yard, unless specially authorized by the department. It will be stipulated in the contract that, if default shall be made by the parties of the first part in delivering all or any of the articles mentioned is any class bid for, of the quality and at the times and places above provided, then and in that case the said parties will be feet and pay to the United States a sum of money not to exceed twice the amount of such class; which may be recovered from time to time according to the act of Congress, in that case provided, approved March 3, 1843. amount of such class; which may be recovered from time to time according to the act of Congress, in that case provided, approved March 3, 185.3.

The stretics must sign the contract, and their responsibility certified to by a nay agent, collector, district attorney, or some other person satisfactority known to the bureau.

It is to be provided in the contract that the bureau shall have the power of annulling the contract, without loss or damage to the government, in case Congress shall not have made sufficient appropriations for the articles named, or for the completion of works estimated for, and on which this advectisement is based, and shall also have the power to increase or diminish the quantities maned in the clauses not headed "miscellameous" in the schedule twenty-five per cent.

Persons whose offices shall be accepted will be notified by letter through the post office, which notice shall be considered sufficient; and, if they do not enter into contract for the supplies specified within fifteen days from the date of notice from the bureau of the acceptance of their bid, a contract will be made with some other persons or persons, and the guarantors of such defaulting bidder will be held responsible for all delinquencies.

All officis not made in sixed conformity with this advertisement will, at the option of the bureau, be rejected.

Those only whose offices may be accepted will be notified, and contracts will be ready for execution as soon thereafter as may be practicable.
